From the Editor

Welcome to 2016! I hope everyone had a safe and happy set of holidays!

I noticed there were only a couple of folks at the December business meeting – besides our gracious hostess – who weren't officers. As I mentioned last time, the current board members are the same people who have repeatedly held offices over the past six (6) years: there are no new names on the list. A non-profit organization relies on its volunteers. Volunteers who continually hold offices tend to burn out. If the people currently on the board start to burn out, there may be no one left to hold offices, and without officers there can be no official club. Most positions require only a small time commitment and little out-of-pocket expenditures. So please, if you value the club and are willing and able to serve, start attending business meetings to figure out where you would be happiest within the board.

And standard announcement: I am always looking for contributing writers. If you attend or are planning a TCI or STC Event and want to let others know how great it was/will be, send me a short narrative and I'll add it to the next newsletter.

Be safe out there.

Alice Q.

From the President

(Bob's Babblings)

As we recover from the holiday rush, I hope we all settle down into a wonderful new year.

The New Year brings hope and change in our lives. Of course, by the time you read this, I would guess that some of you have already broken those New Year's resolutions. Am I right?

I do have some resolutions that I would like to propose to each of you. So repeat after me.

1. I propose to read all of the wonderful information that the Sacramento Tall Club President has to say no matter how dull he seems to be.
2. I propose to make STC more of an element of my social life.
3. I propose to attend at least one function a month.

4. I propose to make my voice heard. I will attend at least two business meetings this year.
5. I propose to make suggestions on what the club can do that I would love to attend and maybe even host.
6. I propose to be a contributor to our newsletter. Alice works very hard at it and needs my input. If the President can write something for every edition, I can contribute at least once this year.
7. I propose that if seems that there is nothing that the club does in my part of town, I will suggest something like a TGIF or mid-month dine out at MY favorite hang-out.
8. I propose to keep a stash of STC business cards and pass one out every once in a while to prospects.
9. I propose to consider attending a TCI event this year. I can see what other clubs are like and make friends outside of our Sacramento club. This could be a Nor-Cal club event, a TCI weekend or TCI convention.

Sacramento Tall Club exists because YOU care enough to be a part of it. I thoroughly enjoy the club. It has made a big difference in my life as it has opened doors to life and activity that I did not think I could be a part of. Many of you have known me for some time and I suggest that you have seen me become much more open and outgoing over the years. I still feel I have a ways to go with that, but that is one area where Sacramento Tall Club has helped me.

I would like to hear how STC has helped you.

Let's make this a banner year for Sacramento Tall Club.

Officers' Reports

Vice-President: Guess you could say I'm new to the list of officers since I haven't served as an officer in the last 10 years. That said, I've attended most of the meetings in recent years. I've been a member for almost 20 years. Don't recall when I joined because I was living in Santa Rosa when I joined and then moved to Gold River in '98.

Ending Balance	9,441.84	664.00	- 0 -

Marketing: MeetUp, Facebook, and Yahoo are the ways to contact us or keep track of events. Barnes & Noble gives us discounts at both the stores and BN.com. Password is Uncle Harry or 916-469-8255, you can also use the membership number 513 7752 540, which is also good at www.bn.com. We pay for, it so PLEASE use it. Do take some time, on Meetup, to look for people that have joined recently and send them a nice note, make them feel welcome! At the top of the Home page look for "Members" and click on "Date Joined". You should see dates and when new members joined Meetup.

Publicity: We're always looking for ways to get the word out about the club. I'm currently looking into having members volunteer during the KVIE membership drive and at the Sacramento Zoo for the annual Ice Cream Safari. If you have any other suggestions please e-mail them to me at publicity@sacramentotallclub.org. If anyone has connections to the media – TV or radio– please contact me and let's put together a plan to get some air time.

What media do you use to find events of interest? Let's identify where people look to find events and determine where their interests take them. Help me make the Sacramento Tall Club common knowledge in the Sacramento area!

Membership: At the December meeting we voted to reduce annual dues from $30 per person to $25 per person. Please pay your dues as soon as possible. We are still at 73 members but have 13 prospects: keep handing out business cards and encouraging people to join us!

Webmaster: Now that we have our 2015-2016 Board, the website has been updated with the current slate of officers with refreshed photos. Also new on the website, the Club By-Laws were added to the members-only area of the site. One last thing: after a discussion regarding PayPal and Scholarship at the last business meeting, donations to the Scholarship fund can now be made directly via PayPal by following the link on the scholarship page. Another way STC supports our future tall citizens.

A Plea from Your Social Chair

We have a pretty full calendar through the end of January, but not the rest of 2016. I am interested in what events the membership would like to see scheduled. We need suggestions for TGIF's, Mid-Month Dine Outs, Dinner & Movie Locations, Business Meeting locations, etc. We also need hosts for some of our annual events.

Please also consider hosting events outside of your home. If there is something you are going to do that you think other people would be interested in, suggest it on MeetUp and we will put it out to the membership to respond. If you have any questions, or need help with MeetUp, please let your social chair know. I can be contacted at home on 916-896-1133, cell 916-753-5424 or e-mail at social@sacramentotallclub.org.

What's Happening, STC?

Here's what we've been up to over the past couple of months.

-  Saturday, October 31st: At least 16 talls dressed up and joined the Huggetts for the Sacramento Tall Club Halloween Party.
-  Thursday, November 5th: 14 talls celebrated Guy Fawkes Day at the Churchill Arms Pub in Folsom.
-  Saturday, November 7th: 5 talls met at the Palladio Shopping Center in Folsom for Dinner and a Movie. First was pizza at Chicago Fire, and then the movie James Bond, Spectre. Patty H. says "Great pizza and really good movie".
-  Sunday, November 8th: Talls attended an Arctic Adventures Presentation by STC member Carol F. Hosted by Rusty B. Carol Francis showed a multi-media presentation of her dream job in the Arctic, where she worked on a cruise ship for G Adventures twice this summer and will be returning soon. The trip started in Edinburgh, Scotland, went to the Orkney and Shetland Islands, up the coast of Norway, to Longyearbyen at 78°N in Svalbard. In Svalbard she took part in a total of five trips, including a circumnavigation of the island group.

On the ship, Carol drove a zodiac rubber boat with a 60 hp outboard motor, gave history lectures on the Arctic, and carried a 30.06 rifle to protect passengers from polar bears (they carefully avoid the bears so they don't have to shoot them). She has video clips from passengers of a polar bear after eating a meal, and a glacier calving.

Noreen says "SUCH a wonderful presentation Carol did for us! Super venue and snacks provided by Leann and Dave, Rusty and others. Just excellent all the way around. Thank you so much!"

- ✚ Saturday, November 14th: At least 7 talls plus guests chowed down on pizza and other goodies and enjoyed the games and other pastimes at John's Incredible Pizza Company in Roseville.

- ✚ Thanksgiving Day: At least 11 talls, plus other assorted guests, gathered at the Huggetts' for the annual Orphans' Thanksgiving. This was a pot-luck event: Bob and Patty provided the turkey, stuffing, and gravy, while others provided such goodies as honeyed carrots, green bean casserole, mashed potatoes, salad, and dessert. If anyone left hungry it was their own fault. Alan L. was "very pleased with the food and the company, which included Patty & Bob's own family".

- ✚ Saturday, November 28th: 4 talls journeyed back in time to experience Charles Dickens' London at the Elk Grove Dickens Street Faire. The Old Town Elk Grove Dickens Street Faire is the traditional start of the Elk Grove Yuletide Season with entertainers and merchants appearing in mid-19th century costumes. Stroll through Old Town and explore local shops, craft and vendor booths, dine alfresco and mingle with friends and neighbors.

- ✚ Saturday, December 5th: Seven talls enjoyed the parade, booths, tree lighting, and chili at Christmas in the Village at Fair Oaks Park. This year instead of lighting the big tree in the village the Chamber had a large decorated tree in the park and invited other organizations, schools, clubs, etc. to provide their own which would be taken down by Sunday. Jen suggested that STC get involved next year and decorate our own tree – a motion that was approved by officers at the December business meeting. Start collecting / creating those ornaments!

- ✚ Sunday, December 6th: 16 talls attended the business meeting / Ugly Sweater party / cookie exchange hosted by Barb K. Barb put out a lovely brunch spread which was enjoyed by all during the business meeting. We then stepped out for group photos, followed by cookie sampling and exchanging.

✚ Saturday, December 12th: Dave and LeeAnn S. welcomed 35+ people to their home for the STC Annual Christmas Party. We had a wonderful time. There was plenty of great food. (And no cookies - thank you!) We collected a whole box of Toys for Tots which were delivered to the Marines for distribution the following Monday. During the evening we enjoyed Christmas music and played a lively game of improvised snowball toss. Thank you to everyone who came!

✚ Sunday, December 27th: Four Sacramento falls attended the Golden Gate Tip Toppers Christmas Party. At the Spinnaker Restaurant in Sausalito. STC members met their hosts in the Spinnaker Bar for lunch, and then some took a stroll through Sausalito.

✚ Sunday, January 3rd: There were thirteen people who attended the Birthday Brunch at Thunder Valley Casino-Resort. Great food for a brunch. We heard from Larry, Dave S. and Harry L. Some ate way too much. The slot machines were abused by some falls that day!
